

BMNC CODE of ETHICS

Love and respect for the Newfoundland is inherent in membership in the Bear Mountain Newfoundland Club. Therefore all members agree to foster the goals set forth in the BMNC Code of Ethics.

I. Responsibilities of Members

- A. To provide for all dogs in their keeping:
 - 1. Physical Requirements of
 - a. Appropriate food, water, and shelter.
 - b. Protection from bodily harm.
 - c. Proper healthcare, including sanitation, immunization, and veterinary attention as needed.
 - 2. Emotional requirements of
 - a. Attention and affection.
 - b. Appropriate training as needed.
- B. To abide by AKC rules applicable to activities in which they engage.
- C. To refuse to sell Newfoundland dogs to any pet shop, broker or any wholesale dealer in dogs, or knowingly to sell or aid or abet the sale of any Newfoundland to a person or agent who will sell the animal or its offspring through a pet shop or broker.

II. Responsibilities of Breeders

- A. To be familiar with the Breed Standard and to be aware that the purpose of breeding is to maintain or improve the quality of the Newfoundland in accordance with that Standard.
- B. To be familiar with the AKC rules applicable to litter registration and individual registration.
- C. To use for breeding only bitches in good health.
- D. To represent accurately the health history and breeding records of the bitch when negotiating for stud service.
- E. To negotiate all terms of a breeding agreement prior to breeding and use a written contract.
- F. To produce puppies only when he/she has the time, facilities, and resources to provide attention to proper physical and emotional development.
- G. To accept the duty to support all Newfs they produce for their entire lives

III. Responsibilities of the Stud Dog Owner

- A. To be familiar with the Breed Standard and to be aware that the purpose of breeding is to maintain or improve the quality of the Newfoundland in accordance with the Standard.
- B. To be familiar with the AKC rules applicable to litter registration.
- C. To accept for servicing only bitches who appear to be in good health.
- D. To represent accurately the health history and breeding records of the dog.
- E. To negotiate all terms of a breeding agreement prior to a breeding and use written contract.
- F. To complete the chain of registration by signing and returning the stud service certification promptly on satisfaction of the terms of the contract.
- G. To accept the duty to support all Newfs they produce for their entire lives

IV. Responsibilities of Sellers

- A. To ascertain that the prospective buyer is aware of the needs of a Newfoundland and has the knowledge and facilities to care properly for a growing or grown dog.
- B. To transfer registration papers to the buyer at the time of sale or to withhold papers only in accordance with AKC rules applying to individual registration, or by written agreement with the buyer.
- C. To advise a buyer, or prospective buyer, of any probable delay or difficulty in registration.
- D. To provide the buyer with a written Bill of Sale to include a description of the dog, the whelping date, the name of sire and dam, and the litter or individual registration number if available.
- E. To advise the buyer of any known health defects.
- F. To advise the buyer in writing of any or all health guarantees and compensations offered by the seller.

V. Advertising

It should be borne in mind that advertising may be read by persons having little or no knowledge of dogs. Each member is responsible to see that all advertising in his/her name does not promote his/her Newfoundlands through misleading or exaggerated statements or distortion of fact, or through stated or implied deprecation of the Newfoundlands of others.

VI. Contracts

Written contracts are strongly recommended for all transactions such as sales, co-ownerships, breeding rights agreements, compensation for future puppies, leasing a bitch and stud services.

VII. Discipline

The following are prima facie grounds for disciplinary action.

- A. Neglect or abuse of any Newfoundland in the care of a member documented by the affidavits of three witnesses or by investigation of an authorized humane organization.
- B. Suspension of privileges by the AKC for violation of its rules.
- C. Advertising found to be in violation of the Code of Ethics.
- D. Knowingly to sell, or to aid and abet the sale of a Newfoundland to or through a pet shop or its agents.
- E. Refusal to comply with the terms of a written contract involving a Newfoundland without showing just cause.
- F. Refusal to complete the chain of AKC registration without showing just cause.
- G. Refusal to transfer registration papers to a buyer without showing just cause.
- H. Refusal to honor guarantees and agreements made in writing without showing just cause.

VIII. Enforcement

Enforcement of the disciplinary section of the Code of Ethics will be handled in accordance with the disciplinary procedures outlined in the BMNC Constitution and By-Laws. In the case of any business transaction involving Newfoundlands, the BMNC will refuse to entertain any grievance brought against a member unless a written contract or other document signed by both parties is submitted with the grievance.